Scotty Dog Resoles In conjunction with Travel 195 would like to offer Climbing Culture. Climbing Culture will be an annual promotion providing an opportunity for one of our customers to visit some of the most iconic and culturally rich climbing destinations in the world.

To enter all you need to do is lodge your order* through one of our Supporters closest to you and write a big YES in the comments box on your order form. Or lodge your order online www.scottydog.com.au and click on the thumbs up Emojie!

When your shoes are received your order number will be automatically placed in the draw for one person to win $1000 towards your ticket and $200 for transfers to help you realize your dream-climbing trip.

For our very first Climbing Culture offering we will be helping one customer travel to arguably the most iconic climbing destination of them all - Yosemite Valley! ***

Our only request from the lucky winner is a photo using your resoles on the Big Stone!
